

NIH Mock Study Section

April 27, 2018

8 a.m. - 12 p.m.

Center for Advanced Medicine

Farrell Conference Room #2

The Clinical Research Training Center, Office of Training Grants, and Office of Faculty Affairs invite you to participate in the biannual National Institutes of Health (NIH) Mock Study Section.

All investigators preparing an application for the NIH R, K, or F series may submit their clinical or translational proposals to this internal review. More than 50% of applicants submitting to the NIH have been funded when participating in this program.

Letters of Intent are due February 2, 2018.
