

Funding Opportunity: V Foundation Pediatric Research Grant Scholar or Translational Awards

One candidate from Washington University will move forward – either a scholar or an investigative team with a translational project.

Agency: V Foundation for Cancer Research

Mechanism: V Foundation Pediatric Research Grant Program – Scholar or Translational

Overview: The scholar award supports young tenure-track faculty focused on basic or translational pediatric cancer research. Translational award projects should move a novel strategy from the laboratory into a human clinical trial or use specimens from a clinical trial to develop biomarkers or mechanisms, and should focus on pediatric cancers.

Internal Competition Deadline: November 26, 2018

Grant Amount and Term: Scholar: $200,000 over 2 years; Translational: $600,000 over 3 years

Eligibility: Applicant must be chosen by the Institution to apply (through the Internal Competition process). Click on the link below to see eligibility rules for the scholar or translational awards.
