

Resources and Support for Early Stage Investigators

Clinical & Translational Research Funding Program

Annual Funding for Translational Research

ICTS members compete for 1-year $50,000 awards to facilitate early stage work for the planning of a new clinical and/or translational research project.

CONTACT: ICTS@wustl.edu

Denise Zurliene (314.362.7707) Jaimee Stagner (314.362.6325)

Core Usage Funding Program

Monthly Review of Funding for Core Usage

ICTS investigators receive quick access to funding to use services of the ICTS-affiliated cores for final data acquisition to support extramural clinical and translational grants ($5,000 voucher).

CONTACT: ICTS@wustl.edu

Julie Heyd (314.362.9331)

ICTS Research Navigation Services

Centralized Investigator Assistance

Personalized consultation or a web-based tool advises members on available resources (ICTS Cores, educational options, and funding) by planning, conduct, analysis, and implementation.

CONTACT: ICTSNavigator@wustl.edu

Dr. Betsy Keath (314.747.8155)

Research Development Program

Expert Consultation and Grant Editing Services

The Research Forum Program provides interactive feedback and project development on grant research design—connecting investigators to collaborators, mentors, and resources.

CONTACT: icts-rf@email.wustl.edu

Dr. Betsy Keath (314.747.8155)

The Scientific Editing Service maximizes the clarity of proposals by in-depth editorial review prior to grant submission.

CONTACT: DOM-ICTSEditor@wustl.edu

Dr. Sara Steenrod (314.273.1785) Dr. Laura Zonia (314.273.1784)

NIH Mock Study Section

Bi-Annual Review of R, K and F Series Grants

Applications are reviewed, critiqued and scored by three internal faculty and other study section members with feedback distributed prior to the NIH grant deadline.

CONTACT: eabente@wustl.edu

Betsy Abente (314.362.1160)

Washington University Grants Library

Repository of Awarded Grants

A centralized resource for grant writers that contains awarded grants, stock language, and tools.

CONTACT: eabente@wustl.edu

Betsy Abente (314.362.1160)